The Kelvin Ensemble, founded in 1991 by a group of enterprising students, provides Glasgow University students from all faculties the opportunity to perform challenging music to a high level under the direction of professional conductors. Having collaborated with many well known conductors and soloists, the Kelvin Ensemble is now recognised as one of the leading non-professional chamber orchestras in Scotland.

By becoming a Friend of the Kelvin Ensemble you can help us to continue and expand a much loved institution which provides fantastic opportunities for young people at Glasgow University.
